

WELCOME

- A Warm and Cordial Welcome is extended to all who worship with us today! We hope that in this service you will encounter the living Christ and experience the warmth of our caring community of faith. Please take a moment to sign our friendship pad when it is passed to you, so that members and guests may greet one another after the service.
- Guests, if you are in search of a church home, we invite you to consider becoming a part of our community of faith here at Corbin Presbyterian Church. Please indicate your interest on the friendship pad, speaking to the Pastor, or by contacting the church office at 606-528-1444 or churchoffice@corbinpres.org
- Children are always welcome in worship! Children's worship bulletins, clip boards and crayons are available on the table just outside the sanctuary for use by children and the adults who worship with them. During worship, children are invited to join the Pastor on the chancel steps for Young Disciples Time. There is also a special Prayground just for them at the rear of the sanctuary where they may continue to interact with the Scriptures and theme of worship for the day.

Joys, Concerns, and Announcements

Opening Prayer

Call to Worship

We come here to draw water-
Thirsty for new life.
We come here to draw water-
Bringing our past and our present, our messy truths and our deepest scars.
We come here to draw water-
Carrying shame, and in need of grace.
Fortunately for us, God always meets us at the well.
So breathe deeply and drink up.
God is here. The water is clean.
Let us worship God.

Hymn #487 When Morning Gilds the Skies LAUDES DOMINI

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (unison)

Like the woman at the well, we so often are unraveled by shame.
We carry shame for broken relationships.
We carry shame for being unable to balance
work and parenting,
tithing and bills,
productivity and Sabbath.
We get stuck in a comparison game and in critical self-monologues,
Consumed with the nagging feeling that we should be able to do more.
Forgive us for forgetting that we are made in your image.
Forgive us for forgetting that you use us and love us as we are.
Unravel the shame that unravels us.
Gratefully we pray, Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

The Gloria #579 Glory Be to the Father

"God, make the door of this place of worship wide enough to receive all who need human love, friendship and the Father's care; narrow enough to shut out all pride, envy and hatred; and smooth enough for the feet of little children."

Please stand as you are able.*

*The Peace

As those who have been forgiven:

Lead a life worthy of your calling—with humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another in love, making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

The peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you.

Signs of peace may be shared with those near you.

Notice the round tapestry that is taking shape in the front of the sanctuary. The torn pieces of fabric represent our hopes and dreams unraveled, the way life and plans sometimes disintegrate under our feet, leaving us scrambling for the footing God is leading us toward. Throughout this worship series, we will take the fabric strips and weave them into the tapestry to remind us of the ways God is present in our moments of unraveling as well as the promise that God hems us in—behind and before. When our plans fall apart, may God weave us together with love. You are invited to write your prayers on the ribbons or fabric strips found in the basket or on the table in the fellowship hall. They will be woven into the tapestry each week.*

We are excited about all the ways the site can help us tell the story of what God is doing at Corbin Presbyterian Church and keep us connected by enhancing our communication with one another. Thanks to all who have made this tool possible! We know some adjustments and additions are still needed, but we couldn't wait to let you see it.
